Holden outsells any other Utility by 8 to 1

Official registration figures for Australia in 1957 show that sales of Holden Utility totalled 20,838 — compared with 2,469 — for the next most popular model. There are good reasons for this outstanding preference for Holden — reasons which your Holden Utility Dealer would like to demonstrate to you.

You get bigger value
★ 6 cylinder performance at lowest cost.
★ Generous load space, floor 75.7" long.
★ Roomy cabin . . . seat over 57" wide.
★ Recirculating ball bearing steering; turning circle just 36\(\frac{1}{2}\) feet.
★ Solid Aerobilt all-steel construction.
★ Wrap-around rear vision and one-piece curved windshield.

You make bigger savings
★ You save with a petrol economy exceptional among vehicles with Holden performance. You save, too, with dependability proved by thousands of owners.
★ You save with immediate availability of low cost Genuine Holden Parts.
★ Long life construction and great popularity make Holden a great asset when the time comes for you to trade-in.
