1-1-1971

Introducing the Hon. H.D. Evans

Department of Agriculture, Western Australia

Follow this and additional works at: https://researchlibrary.agric.wa.gov.au/journal_agriculture4

Part of the Agribusiness Commons, Business Administration, Management, and Operations Commons, and the Public Administration Commons

Recommended Citation

Available at: https://researchlibrary.agric.wa.gov.au/journal_agriculture4/vol12/iss5/2

This article is brought to you for free and open access by Research Library. It has been accepted for inclusion in Journal of the Department of Agriculture, Western Australia, Series 4 by an authorized administrator of Research Library. For more information, please contact jennifer.heathcote@agric.wa.gov.au, sandra.papenfus@agric.wa.gov.au.
IMPORTANT DISCLAIMER

This document has been obtained from DAFWA's research library website (researchlibrary.agric.wa.gov.au) which hosts DAFWA's archival research publications. Although reasonable care was taken to make the information in the document accurate at the time it was first published, DAFWA does not make any representations or warranties about its accuracy, reliability, currency, completeness or suitability for any particular purpose. It may be out of date, inaccurate or misleading or conflict with current laws, polices or practices. DAFWA has not reviewed or revised the information before making the document available from its research library website. Before using the information, you should carefully evaluate its accuracy, currency, completeness and relevance for your purposes. We recommend you also search for more recent information on DAFWA's research library website, DAFWA's main website (https://www.agric.wa.gov.au) and other appropriate websites and sources.

Information in, or referred to in, documents on DAFWA's research library website is not tailored to the circumstances of individual farms, people or businesses, and does not constitute legal, business, scientific, agricultural or farm management advice. We recommend before making any significant decisions, you obtain advice from appropriate professionals who have taken into account your individual circumstances and objectives.

The Chief Executive Officer of the Department of Agriculture and Food and the State of Western Australia and their employees and agents (collectively and individually referred to below as DAFWA) accept no liability whatsoever, by reason of negligence or otherwise, arising from any use or release of information in, or referred to in, this document, or any error, inaccuracy or omission in the information.
INTRODUCING THE HON. H. D. EVANS

THE new Minister for Lands, Agriculture and Immigration the Hon. Hywell David Evans (46) brings to his work a background of country experience.

Born in Wales he came to Western Australia at the age of two, and was educated at Pemberton State School and Bunbury High School before joining the R.A.A.F. and serving as an air gunner in operations from New Guinea and the North of Australia.

After the World War he completed a teacher training course and spent two years as an organiser in the Junior Farmer Movement at Mt. Barker and Harvey.

He returned to his old school, Pemberton, and while teaching there gained his Bachelor of Arts degree. He taught at Pemberton for 10 years, the last five as deputy headmaster, and he was senior master, teaching Leaving English, at Manjimup Senior High School for the next five years.

He was elected Member of the Legislative Assembly for Warren in 1968 when the former member Mr. J. N. Rowberry retired.

Mrs. Evans was formerly Miss Betty Rice, whose family farm is south of Manjimup. The Minister and Mrs. Evans, who have a son aged 14 and two girls, aged eleven and seven, hope to continue living at Manjimup. When he is able, Mr. Evans enjoys golf and fishing.