70  The Mediterranean white lupin
    Historical notes on the Mediterranean white lupin, recently released for commercial production in Western Australia but cultivated (in its bitter form) for thousands of years in Mediterranean countries.

75  Emus on the move—1976
    Why emus from the pastoral areas congregated for “the greatest migration of emus in recent times”—and how the Agriculture Protection Board handled the exodus.

77  The control of annual ryegrass
    A review of research into annual ryegrass—and current recommendations for its control.

82  Efficiency of sprinkler irrigation systems
    Comments on the design of sprinkler systems for more efficient use of water.

85  Bounty systems in vermin control
    A critical review of bounty systems in animal population management finds little evidence of success.

90  Wild oats in W.A.
    Some results of a detailed ecological study of an important crop weed, with notes on cultural and chemical control methods.

96  The cork oak
    A brief description of the cork oak and cork production, with comments on commercial prospects for cork in Western Australia.
