1-1-1978

Contents

Department of Agriculture, Western Australia
Contents

Journal of Agriculture—Western Australia
Volume 19, No. 3 (4th series), 1978

67 Crutching cradles can work well
Description of crutching cradles and how to get best use from them.

70 Low cost fencing
Principles of fencing using high tensile wire.

74 Fencing with electricity
Design and construction of electric fencing.

81 Five new sub. clovers change pasture recommendations
Legumes recommended for Western Australian pastures.

84 Controlling annual ryegrass toxicity
Description of this problem and the methods developed for controlling it.

90 New policy hits hard at sheep lice
Progress report on new lice policy.

91 Buying veterinary products—read the label
Labels give the best advice about using veterinary products.

92 Seed kikuyu performs well
Results of a trial comparing the variety Whittet which can be established from seed, with other varieties.

93 Some basic facts about primary blowflies
Identifying different blowfly species may become important in future management programmes.