

HOARY CRESS

(Cardaria draba (L.) Desv.)

Hoary cress belongs to the same family as wild turnip and wild radish but, while they are annuals, it is a vigorous perennial. Native to the Mediterranean region and Western Asia, it has become a serious weed in many other countries including Britain, North America, New Zealand and Australia.